Will Be a Third-Term Candidate on a Gold Standard Platform.

A Chicago Paper Receives a Large Number of Letters on the Subject, by Request-Responses Tend to Show That the Tariff is Still a Leading Issue.

CHICAGO, May 1 .- The Chicago Mail recently sent letters to leading men of both parties, senators and representatives of congress, members of the national and state committees, governors of states and members of legislatures, asking them if, in their opinion, Grover Cleveland is a candidate for a third term, and if so, does he expect to run as a democrat or republican candidate, or as the candidate of a third party, formed by the supporters of the gold standard in both organizations?

The first installment of the replies, which were published Tuesday afternoon, shows that there is a surprising number of persons who believe that Mr. Cleveland is a third term candidate on the gold standard platform. It is worthy of note, however, that if he is such a candidate, he would receive little encouragement from the republicans, even from those who may agree with his financial views.

The responses show that the tariff is still the leading issue, and that no man who has declared himself against protection, and whose administration has been arrayed against it, can secure the support of the republicans of the coun-

The responses from the democrats show that they are widely divided in their opinions. They are either bitterly hostile to Mr. Cleveland, or warmly favorable. The democrats who think he may be a third-term candidate, however, insist that it must be as the candidate of some other party than their own.

RED-NOSED MIKE.

The Mystery Surrounding His Long-Hidden Treasure.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 1 .- Saturday night two men drove to Pine Plains, this county, and proceeding to the farm of Frank Eno, near that village, dug up something which had been buried near a large bowlder and hastily disappeared.

The fact that the Italian known as "Red-nosed Mike," who murdered and robbed the paymaster of a large manufacturing company in Pennsylvania, several years ago, was arrested at Pine Plains, while employed as a railroad laborer, and that the plunder he obtained from his victim has never been accounted for, leads to the belief that the object carried away by the men is "Red-nosed Mike's" long-hidden treasure. There is a mystery about the affair which can not be explained.

A BEEF COMBINE.

Editor Schoffeld, of the Eutchers' and Packers' Magazine, Charges That There

Sr. Louis. May 1.-For three weeks Mr. John H. Schofield, editor of the Butchers' and Packers' Magazine, has been making personal investigation of the rapid rise in beef, visiting all the packing centers. The result of his labors will appear in a lengthy article in his magazine Wednesday, in substance as follows:

"The sudden rise in beef began during Lent, and when five European countries had boycotted our product. This was unnatural, and the result of manipulation of a combine, including such large dealers as Nelson Morris. Armour, Swift, Cudahy and others. Cattle prices have not advanced with beef prices, as the combine held the market, having large stocks on the hoof and in refrigerators. Morris alone had at the beginning of the rise 100,000 head. This shows that no natural rise was possible.

"This combination to raise prices accomplished a two-fold purpose. The first was to double the profits of the retailer without giving the cattle raiser a percentage. The second and principal object was to wreak revenge on the sugar trust for closing, as the combine claims, the markets of Europe. The big packers assert that the European boycott is in retaliation for the duty imposed on sugar, and that when this is removed the European houses will reopen.

"The combine hopes to create a sufficient public sentiment to effect that end. The packers say the sugar people violated a compact made between them when they insisted upon and secured the bounty. Hence the desire for revenge."

The article is replete with data to prove all its assumptions, and more particular revelations are promised.

A Trivial Dispute Started the Trouble Two Years Ago.

The Killing Took Place on the Parties Leaving a Magistrate's Office, After a Trial-Result Came Within a Few Seconds After the First Shot.

NEWBERN, Tenn., May 1 .- Shortly before dark Tuesday evening a fusilade of pistol shots was heard on the main street, but parties who ran in the direction were too late to see any of the trouble, as within ten seconds of the opening shot the four participants lay dead in the street.

These four are R. W. Townsend and his son Beauregard, and Abb and John Fulgham.

This tragedy is the outcome of a feud that started two years ago, growing out of a very trivial dispute between the Townsend and Fulgham families. The troubles smoldered along without breaking out in open violence until last Friday evening. when Murray Fulgham, meeting young Avery Townsend, began to abuse him, concluding ministering a beating to the young man with an ax handle. Young Townsend swore out a warrant charging Fulgham with assault and battery with intent to kill. Fulgham at once left town to avoid arrest, and went up into Madison county, but his father sent for him and brought him back. People in the neighborhood aware of the facts, and knowing the hot natures of the two families, expected that there would be serious trouble, but were not prepared for the tragedy of Tuesday evening.

Young Fülgram was arrested on his return home by Constable Towns and gave bond. Tuesday evening he was taken before a magistrate for a hearing, and as the evidence showed the assault to have been unprovoked, a fine of $50 with costs attached was indays, but asks a further condition that flicted. There was quite a large party in the magistrate's office at the time and no serious words passed between the opposing parties during the progress of the trial. At the conclusion of the court business the crowd moved out, and near the door the Townsend and Fulgham parties came together. There were but few angry words when weapons were drawn and the shooting began. In almost an instant the killing was done, and the four men lay
